B
Legis 23 of 1916
(1-5)

In connection with the amendment of the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation, 1907, so as to extend the term of office of a Member of the Mysore Legislative Council from two to three years it was ordered in Legis. File 23 of 1916 that it should be ruled that a Member of the Representative Assembly elected to the Legislative Council should vacate his seat on the council after he ceases to be a member of the Representative Assembly or after his term on the council is over whichever is earlier.

notes

2. Further in order to have general elections held only once every three years it is considered desirable to rule that where a casual vacancy occurs otherwise than by efflux of the period of three years the member nominated to the vacancy shall hold office only so long as the member to whose vacancy the nomination is made would have held if the latter had not ceased to be a member of the Council.

Draft for approval

3. Draft^x notification issuing necessary rules is put up. This may be approved.
